

Introduced by Senator Scott

February 17, 2005

An act relating to community colleges.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

SB 361, as introduced, Scott. Community colleges: growth allocations for community college districts.

Existing law establishes the California Community Colleges under the administration of the Board of Governors of the California Community Colleges. Existing law authorizes the establishment of community college districts under the administration of community college governing boards, and authorizes these districts to provide instruction at community college campuses throughout the state. Existing law establishes a system for the apportionment of state funding to community college districts. This system is generally based on calculations related to the number of full-time equivalent students (FTES) in attendance at each district.

This bill would express the intent of the Legislature to enact legislation that will address the method by which community college districts receive growth allocations.

Vote: majority. Appropriation: no. Fiscal committee: no.
State-mandated local program: no.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

- 1 SECTION 1. It is the intent of the Legislature to enact
- 2 legislation that will address the method by which community
- 3 college districts receive growth allocations.
